From the desk of our Executive Director Anita Bowen

I saw a quote on a local sign board this winter that has continued to be in the back of my mind. It said, “I finally got my ends together, and then someone else moved the ends.” Do you ever feel like that? You start off great one morning or are having a fabulous week, a near perfect month and feeling really good about yourself and then... the car won't start, you throw your back out, your password won't work to log in to an important web site so that you can pay a bill, your favorite neighbor just told you that they are moving to a different community, the grocery item that has become a staple in your cabinet is temporarily (will it ever be again?) unavailable. The list goes on of things that happen when you sure weren't planning for them to happen.

So, I guess since we all know that these “ends” do get moved by other people and extenuating circumstances all the time, it's really about the way that we react to them that is the only thing we can control. That's what I'm working on. I recently had a flat tire on the way to a hair appointment in Lafayette. The hair appointment ended up being a VERY expensive one as I had to get two new tires in order to get back home safely (and I still didn't get to the hair appointment that night). However, I was thankful for many things that evening, including the fact that I was able to safely get the car to an auto parts store where I originally thought my son and I would be able to get it aired up and back on the road. The team members at that store were so kind and went above and beyond to try to help us. When we learned that the tire could not be inflated, and that no spare tire was in our vehicle, guess what was right across the highway? A tire store. After creeping across the road, the staff at this store was just as helpful and took good care of us so that we could get back on the road.

My reaction to that little adventure was the only thing that I could control that night. The tire was flat. People were helping us. We were safe. If there was a “perfect” place for the incident to occur, this was it. I had a way to pay the bill. I could reschedule my hair appointment.

Friends, we are always so thankful when our ends get moved at BCSSI by circumstances that we didn't plan for, like the weather, that you give us some grace and know that we really don't like to cancel events and activities, but safety will always come first. We are also so thankful for how you all are part of our extended family and are willing to share your ideas on how to make BCSSI better. During January, if you attended Lunch & Laugh in Lebanon or Zionsville, we loved hearing what you want to do in 2022. Some of those things are featured in this issue of Senior Sounds, other things will be coming later in the year. I have even heard from some of you since then with other ideas -- and always encouraging words.

I guess the real moral of the story is that, even when you get your ends together close enough to tie them, be sure you are tying them up with faith, hope, love and patience because therefore, even when they come undone, you will be better prepared to handle whatever comes your way. I'm looking forward to lots of GOOD coming our way this spring. Come see us!

~Until Next Time, Anita

BCSSI 2022 Annual Celebration Our Journey Goes On

BCSSI hosted its 2022 Annual Celebration on February 16th. Community members and staff celebrated the agency's 2021 accomplishments. Attendees enjoyed a delicious breakfast prepared by Brandon and Amy Beesley. Anita Bowen, Executive Director, gave her annual update...below is a summary of her remarks.

"I have done some significant travel in my life – for work, pleasure and travel baseball. When you travel, there's preparation. Planning. And packing. Some are better at these three things than others, and I'd like to think that I got better with time. I wouldn't trade these experiences for anything, as they've all been a part of my life journey. At BCSSI, our journey began in 1978, and again, this journey didn't begin without preparation and planning by our founding Director, Margot Corson, and the other dedicated community leaders who saw needs and went to work to fill them. As we reflect on 2021, year number 43 and we are thankful to say that "Our Journey Goes On"...as we passionately and thoughtfully continue to pack up what our community members need most to age well.

It's been said many times that, in life, we need to assure that we are not just focusing on the destination but enjoying the journey to the end point. At BCSSI, while there will always be challenging days, I believe that this family enjoys the journey that we are given each year to make a positive impact in our communities. I hope you will take some time to review additional statistics and donor details in our 2021 Annual Report that can be picked up in our offices or found on-line via our website and social media. While we love what we do, it takes more than our 37-member team to help Boone County age well. We are grateful for all who support us in countless ways. Thank you for being on this journey with us."

Thank you for your support during 2021 and giving BCSSI the opportunity to serve more than 2000 individuals through a variety of services and programs.
To receive a copy of our annual report please contact our office at 765-482-5220 or 317-873-8939 or go to www.booneseniors.org.

BCSSI Spotlight

Cindy Elliott, Director of Transportation

“Celebrating 24 Years of Service”

When Cindy Elliott found out about an opening with BCSSI for a receptionist position she had less than 24 hours to prepare a resume and get it submitted to Founder and Executive Director Margot Corson before the application deadline. Cindy was looking for a new job and change. Little did she know, she was one of 52 applicants! With a successful interview demonstrating her organizational skills by scheduling a day of transit pick-ups, she was hired!

Cindy recalls a much smaller staff in the early years which consisted of Founder Margot Corson, Sue Ritz, Bonnie Fletcher, Myra Dearing and three paid drivers. The agency was located in the little blue house at 403 North Lebanon St. in Lebanon. The agency owned a purple van and two cars...much different than the 37 staff members of today and the 20 plus vehicles in current operation. When she started, all scheduling requests for transportation were directed to her and everything was completed by hand on paper, and using ticket stubs. Cindy not only handled the transportation scheduling but also payroll, accounts payable and receptionist duties.

Cindy recalls the biggest change over the many years at BCSSI has been converting everything to computers. Today, through the use of a computer scheduling system, transportation annually schedules between 17,000-24,000 trips with 700-1000 customers (numbers have varied due to Covid).

Cindy has enjoyed working with the different drivers over the years. “Being around great people because they wanted to work and not because they had to work is special and I have become attached to many of our drivers over the years”. Some of the past drivers she recalls working with in her earlier years, include Hank Tallman, John Dotas, Russ Roberts and Paul Reagan, just to name a few. She also recalls many volunteers such as George & Nancy Tikijian and Pat James that gave countless hours to help with transportation pick ups in Zionsville.

“It all started as a job that is now a big part of my life. I feel like I gave 100% and I am proud of my time with BCSSI. I will miss the people and staff. I am excited to retire and spend more time with family, travel, volunteering at church and not having to set my alarm for 4:30AM to get to the office”.

Cindy considers herself a life-long resident of Boone County and has been married to her husband Dave for 45 years. She has two daughters and three grandchildren.

BCSSI will celebrate Cindy’s retirement on March 24th from 2:00-4:00PM in the BCSSI community room. The open house is open to the public. Please RSVP to BCSSI.

Congratulations Cindy on your retirement and 24 years of service to BCSSI and our community. We wish you the happiest adventures as you start a new chapter in your life!

The Little Things

Submitted by Mary Allen

It's the little things in life that count,
The things of every day;
Just the simple things that we can do,
The kind words we say
The little things like a friendly smile
For those who may be sad,
The clasp of a hand or kindly deed to help make someone glad
A knock on the door of lonely homes or flowers bright and gay.
For some one to whom you might bring cheer
With just a small bouquet.
Just the little greetings here and there
On which do much depends.
The little pleasures all can share
The joy of making friends.

 1/2 c. brown sugar, lightly packed
 1 large egg
 1 large egg yolk
 2 tsp. vanilla
 2 c. + 2 tbsp. flour

1/2 tsp. baking soda

Mix in egg, yolk, and vanilla until combined. In a separate bowl, stir together flour, baking soda, and salt. Stir into wet ingredients just until combined. Stir in 1 c. white chocolate chips.
