From the desk of our Executive Director Anita Bowen

I have never resorted to writing messages on my palms to help me remember something, but I am definitely a person who has a pen and paper handy...at work and at home to make notes about things I need to remember! I still use a paper calendar and love to write all kinds of things in as daily, weekly and monthly reminders. My notes are intended to help me remember what I might otherwise forget. But, what about the things that I forget that I haven't written down...anyone ever forget what they did with their cell phone, their reading glasses, their coffee cup or water bottle? I swear those things sometimes just get up and move around my house to make me crazy! I can get in a lot of steps just in my own home searching for things that I have misplaced and sometimes just trying to remember what I am looking for in the first place!

As we start a brand-new year, I got to thinking about forgetfulness and the fact that, in a deeper sense, I actually need to be more "forgetful". I could use a little help letting things go that are not worth remembering: like a mistake I made, something I said or a decision that I continue to re-think over and over, or an action that I wish I had taken but didn't. I need to forget about the new wrinkles that adorn my face year-after-year and the extra pounds that I have acquired just through the holiday season. I certainly need to forget about comparing myself to anyone else in the world. I can forget about all of the little things that can become big things if we let them. I really do need to be forgetful!

At BCSSI, one thing that we won't forget is that we're in business because of all of you – our customers and friends who want to have a relationship with us. You might need us for transportation or in-home services. You may enjoy our activities and workshops. You like to connect with us through caregiver programs and learning opportunities. You may do one thing or many things with us, but whatever you do makes our hearts happy. As we start fresh this year, what else can we help you with? Coming in January (as long as our weather is cooperative), we don't want to forget to ask ... WHERE else should BCSSI show up to fulfill our mission? And, WHO else needs to know about us? WHAT are we missing in the way of programs and services that would be helpful in Boone County? We welcome your feedback in person, via e-mail or (abowen@booneseniors.org) or by phone at 765-482-5220/(317)873-8939.

As I walk around my house with my cell phone in my pocket while I search frantically for it from room-to-room, I'm going to laugh at myself because I'm doing better with the big things in my life that should not be remembered. As we start 2023, maybe you will want to join me in the forgetfulness quest?

Hope to see you soon and often in 2023 ~

Anita

What's happening at BCSSI...

On the 3rd Tuesday of every month you can find us helping at the Gleaners Senior Mobile Food Pantry at the Boone County Fairgrounds. Last month we helped distribute food to 200 households. Need a ride to the pantry? We can help with that...call 765-482-5220 for more info. Pictured is BCSSI Administrative Assistant Jenny Lemen and Linda Fogle, BATS driver.

Thank you to ALL who contributed to our Holiday Silent Auction fundraiser. Thank you as well for bidding and outbidding on each of our items. We offered more than 100 beautiful items this year and profited nearly $7,000 to support our mission at BCSSI. THANK YOU!

Muffins & Masterpieces attendees painted a beautiful winter scene while eating a sweet treat! Watch for Muffins & Masterpieces to return in 2023! We encourage you to give it a try even if you have never painted! Thank you to CrownPointe Assisted Living Facility for sponsoring.

Lunch and Learn in Zionsville and Lebanon had a special Holiday Party and enjoyed beautiful music performed by Dr. Beth Bartlett on her harp. Dr. Bartlett is a Lebanon native and has a practice in Lebanon. THANK YOU Dr. Bartlett for sharing your beautiful music.

We rekindled the childhood excitement of show & tell day during a recent Lunch & Learn with our friends at CrownPointe Assisted Living Facility! Pictured is Patricia Bohannon sharing a beautiful quilt she won on a quilt tour. Patricia also shared that she is a quilter herself. We had so much fun learning about everyone's treasures!!!

The BCSSI staff had a fun-filled day of team building, a scavenger hunt & doing all the pumpkin things at Dull's Tree Farm. Decoding Tom Dull's scavenger hunt riddles were as challenging as solving his math equations on last year's Escape Trail! Congrats to the team of hearts for winning the hunt! And, thank you to the Dull family for a special day.

Holiday Blessings & Fun...

Sometimes Santa uses a bookmobile to deliver "Golden" Gifts...! Thank you to the Hussey-Mayfield Public Library for delivering holiday cheer to older adults in our community two years in a row!! Pictured are Friends of the Hussey Mayfield Library Kristin Nalbome & Lauren Kniola, Cindy Hickson, BCSSI Director of Personal Services & Kelly Avenatti, BCSSI Asst. Director of Personal Services.

If you're worried and you cant sleep, just count your blessings instead of sheep and you'll fall asleep counting your blessings. ~White Christmas.

The BCSSI staff fell asleep counting our blessings after an incredible day at the Myers Dinner Theatre in Hillsboro. We were blessed to be able to celebrate the holiday season together thanks to an amazing Board of Directors who hosted the event. We are also blessed to have a supportive work family and to make a difference in the lives of older adults. And...beyond blessed to have clients like YOU!

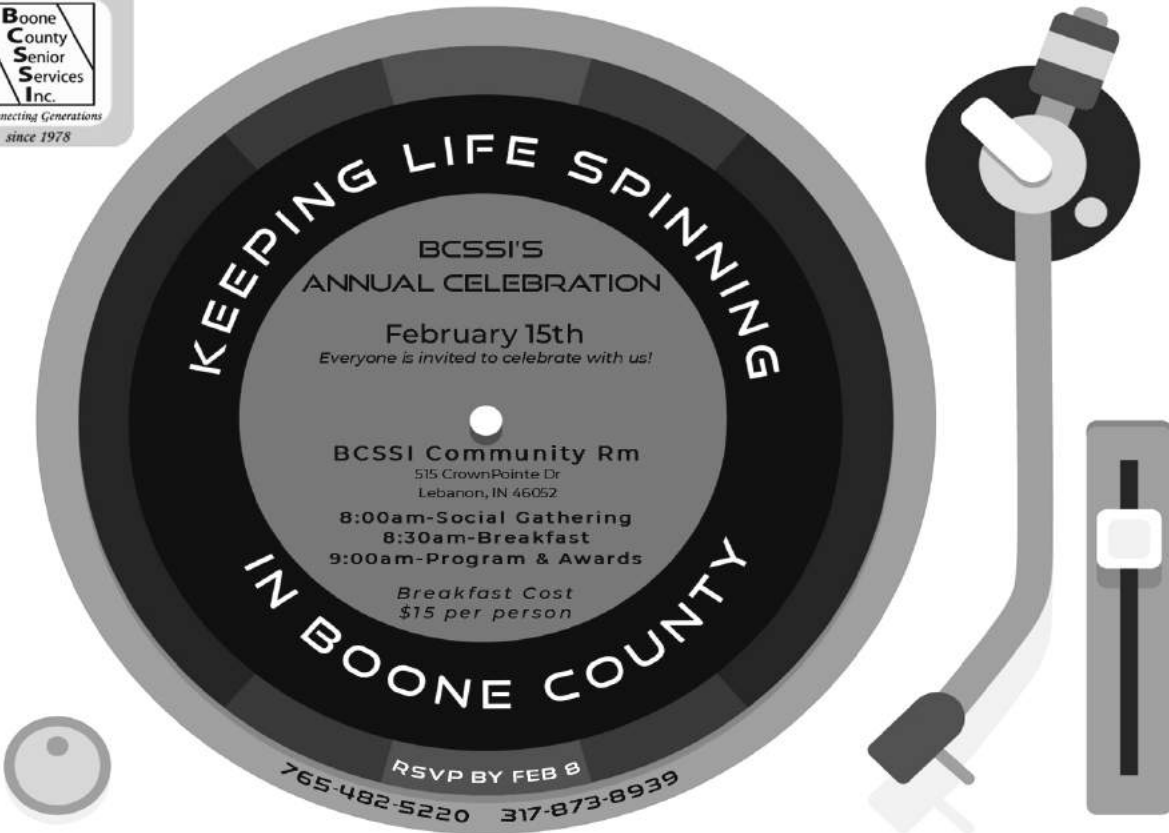

Lunch & Learn traveled to Clarksville for the Derby Dinner Playhouse Christmas Show. The show couldn't have been better and everyone definitely left the theater looking forward to the season and hoping for a White Christmas! Look at those smiles in this picture!! Thank you Homewood Health Campus for sponsoring the trip.

BCSSI Spotlight Dave Rusie Volunteer & Tech Time Instructor

How did you get involved with BCSSI? I knew former BCSSI Director of Volunteers Judy Brower who lived and worked in Zionsville. She asked me to become a Friendly Visitor and spend time with older adults who could benefit from a regular visitor/friend.

How many years have you volunteered at BCSSI? I have volunteered since 2015. I not only volunteered as a Friendly Visitor but I also assisted BCSSI with several interviews of older adults during the Indiana Bicentennial in 2016 and helped with the Sip 'N Learn at the Zionsville Town Hall. Most recently, I accepted the position as the Tech Time Instructor. My mother lived to be 103 years old and was an amazing volunteer. In fact, she was a volunteer of the year for United Way. I attribute my interest in volunteering to her....she used to say "If we are not here to help others than what are we here for...".

What makes BCSSI unique? The organization is unique because of the way they reach out to older adults and connect with them, as well as their activities and services available.

Family: My wife and I have two adult children Kevin and Allison. Allison recently married and our son Kevin and his wife just welcomed our first grandson, Dean.

Hobbies/Interests: I enjoy following sports, The Indianapolis Colts and working on old sports cars.

What do you want others to know about BCSSI? BCSSI is here to help you. Everyone is great and they always have a smile on their face.

THANK YOU CAREGIVERS!!!

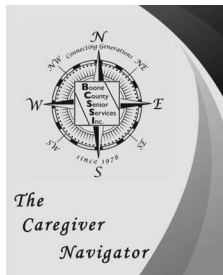

In your caregiving journey, you may not often receive thanks, but take the time to thank yourself for your valuable contributions. The caregiving work you do may seem unnoticed at times, but you can take note of it even if no one else does. Thank yourself for your tender care of your loved one and recognize how important that has been. Your work is vital. Thank you!

Remember in this new year that gratitude reduces unhealthy emotions like envy and resentment. Giving thanks boosts happiness and reduces depression. So take a moment to bring good cheer into your life and let it spread throughout the new year.

Terry Barnett
Director of Finance

Terry started with BCSSI in March 2017 as the Director of Finance. He grew up on a family farm and graduated from Sheridan High School and Purdue University. In the 80's he worked for Greencastle Production Credit Association as a Lender and then Citizen's Bank as a Farm Lender. He was self employed from 1990-2004 as a Certified Financial Planner. He then made an industry change and spent ten years at Western Boone School Corporation as the Business Manager and Director of Transportation before retiring. He and his wife Susan have been married for 43 years. Their daughter Meredith and her husband Jake have a little boy, Ben, and they live in West Chester, Ohio. Their son Chase and his wife Andrea have two little ones, Jack and Emma and they live in Carmel.

Terry had a goal upon retirement to write a book. He has surpassed his goal and just finished his fourth novel! His wife is his editor and his books are available for purchase on Amazon. They include: Revenge Knows No Bounds, Revenge Deepens, Lasting Revenge and the newest book, Forgone Revenge. Terry also enjoys woodworking in his free time and following Purdue sports.

Terry first became familiar with BCSSI when his father used the transportation and Personal Services. He is grateful for the assistance provided and states that what makes BCSSI special is "we care"!

BCSSI Personal Services Division is hiring!

“BCSSI is here for me during the holidays and anytime throughout the year...”

Dianne Davis has enjoyed the benefit of BCSSI activities and services for many years. She regularly attended the BCSSI art class for a couple of years with her daughter-in-law, Kathy Davis before her and her husband’s needs grew.

“Everything fell into place and BCSSI offered to help me. Personal Services was scheduled to visit our home every other week. Kelly Avenatti visits and helps clean our home which is a huge benefit as my husband Harold and I suffer from bad backs and it is sometimes challenging to clean the way I would like for things to be cleaned. Kelly has become more than my house cleaner, I consider her a personal friend.”

Dianne also benefits from the Avelena Fund and receives a monthly gift. “We are more than excited and grateful to receive this special support. We are also thankful that we are thought of during the holidays and BCSSI forwards our names to receive Thanksgiving meals prepared and delivered by the Boone County Sherriff’s Department. They are always thinking of us and our needs. BCSSI has provided me with friends and activities I enjoy. Anybody who wants support and friendship should know that BCSSI is the first to go to and I want to just hug them for all they do. I want to use more services like transportation in the future and I would love to attend one of their travel trips.

I want to personally thank Kelly for all she does for us in my home and Jenny Lemen who answers the phones at BCSSI and is always so helpful and personable.”

Thank you Dianne for your kind words and trusting BCSSI with your personal needs.

Supporting the Boone County Senior Services Foundation and BCSSI through an annual gift or a Legacy gift will ensure that services and programs continue well into the future for individuals like Dianne and Harold.

If you would like to learn more about leaving a Legacy Gift we would love to personally meet with you.
